3. The chairman of the Board in consultation with the chairman of the Supervisory—Council arranges for the agenda and convocation of the members of the Board and—the Supervisory Council. 4. The combined meeting will be chaired by the chairman—of the Supervisory Council. In his absence the members of the Supervisory Council—present will arrange for chairing of the meeting. Until that time the meeting is—chaired by the eldest member present of the Supervisory Council.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST, AUXILIARY POSITIONS AND INCOMPATIBILITIES

Article 18

1. The Board and the Supervisory Council will guard against a conflict of interest—between the Foundation, the members of the Board, its employees and the member—of the Supervisory Council.
2. Membership of the Board or the Supervisory Council is not compatible with the—capacity of officer, founder, shareholder, supervisory officer or employee of a. an—entity to which the Foundation gives the money it has collected directly or—indirectly, in full or in part; and/or b. an entity with which the Foundation—structurally carries out legal acts, which can be measured in terms of money. An—entity as meant here above is equated to a legal entity or entity affiliated with the—Foundation directly or indirectly in accordance with these Articles. A relationship—as referred to here above is a reason for dismissal.
3. The provisions of paragraph 2 of this article do not apply with regard to an entity,—or an entity affiliated directly or indirectly with it in accordance with the articles,—that the Foundation gives money to in accordance with its objects under the—Articles (receiving entity) subject to the proviso that: a. the influence of a receiving—entity on the appointment and nomination for appointment of the Board of the—fundraising institution is permitted to a maximum of a third of the number of Board—members; and b. no more than a third of the number of Board members or the—

Supervisory Council may consist of the persons referred to in paragraph 1 of this article. The abovementioned Board members may not represent the Foundation outside of representation by participation in actions of the Board.

4. The provisions of paragraphs 2 and 3 of this article do not apply if and insofar as with regard to the Foundation and the said entity there is a case of consolidation as meant in "Guideline 650 Fundraising Institutions".
5. The Supervisory Council is authorised to decide whether there is a conflict of interest with regard to a person.
6. In the event that such a conflict of interest occurs with regard to a member of the Board he must report this to the chairman of the Supervisory Council.
7. In the event that a conflict of interest occurs with regard to a member of the Supervisory Council he must report this to the Supervisory Council.
8. The person involved must further refrain with regard to deliberation and resolutions on the matter in respect of which the conflict of interest has occurred. The presence of the person involved does not count towards determining whether the required quorum for resolutions has been obtained.
9. The members of the Supervisory Council of the Foundation may not be an officer or employee of the Foundation.
10. A conflict of interest occurs if there is a case of carrying out legal acts which are measured in terms of money between the fundraising institution and i) the members of the Board and/or the members of the Supervisory Council, ii) persons who are close family or have comparable relationships with the members of the Board and/or the members of the Supervisory Council, and iii) legal entities where the persons referred to under i) and II) are Board members, Supervisory Council members or shareholders.

AMENDMENT TO THE ARTICLES, MERGER AND DISSOLUTION

Article 24

1. The Articles of the Foundation can be amended, the Foundation may merge with a legal entity and the Foundation may be dissolved by the Board, after prior approval of the Supervisory Council, at a meeting convened to that end by the Board.
2. Any amendment to the Articles will not take effect prior to it being laid down by notarial deed.
3. Any Board member is authorised to execute the required notarial deed, irrespective of the authority of the Board to authorise a third party to amend the Articles by that resolution.
4. The approval referred to in paragraph 1 of this article must be evidenced by notarial deed.
5. The Board is required, as long as and if the Foundation is recognised as a public benefit institution in the manner as referred to in Section 6.33 of the Income Tax Act, before proceeding to executing the said deed, to notify the relevant office of the Tax Authorities of the intention to amend the Articles with the request to declare that the intended amendment does not affect the acknowledgement of the Foundation as an institution as referred to in Section 6.33 paragraph 1b of the Income Tax Act.
6. If a resolution is made on legal merger or demerger, the proposal on the basis of which a resolution for merger or demerger is adopted must state that the articles of the acquiring legal entity as they read after the legal merger or demerger stipulate that the capital which the acquiring legal entity will acquire as a result of the intended merger or demerger, as well as the fruits thereof, may only be used other than was the case prior to the merger or demerger with the consent of the court.

Article 25

1. In the event of dissolution of the Foundation, liquidation is carried out by the Board unless the dissolution resolution appoints one or more persons or legal entities as liquidators.
2. a. Any credit balance must be spent for the benefit of an institution as referred to in Article 5b of the State Taxes Act with a similar object as the Foundation, or for the benefit of a foreign (non-Dutch) institution that exclusively or almost exclusively serves the public interest and that has a similar object as the Foundation.

- b. The appropriation of the credit balance is determined by the Management Board, with due observance of what has been provided hereinabove sub a.
3. During the liquidation the provisions of these Articles remain in force.
 4. During the liquidation "in liquidation" must be added to the Foundation's name in any documents and announcements sent out by the Foundation.
 5. The liquidators will draw up a report of the liquidation, demonstrating the size and composition of any surplus.
 6. The liquidators will make the report and any plan of division available for inspection at the Commercial Register of the Chamber of Commerce where the Foundation is registered and at the office of the Foundation or another address in the District where the Foundation is registered for two months.
 7. The liquidators will announce that the report is available for inspection in a daily newspaper, which is generally read locally where the Foundation has its registered office.
 8. At the end of the liquidation the books and documents of the Foundation will be kept for seven years by the person or legal entity appointed to do so by the Board in the resolution to dissolve.
